Website Policy

The information provided on this website is for general informational purposes only and is intended to outline the products and services offered by Arham Finance. It does not constitute financial advice and should not be relied upon as a substitute for professional advice tailored to your individual circumstances.

While we aim to ensure that all information on this website is accurate and up to date, we do not make any guarantees regarding its completeness or reliability. Arham Finance does not accept liability for any loss or damage arising from the use of, or reliance on, the information provided on this website.

Product Availability & Applications

Products and services displayed on this website may not be available to all customers or in all locations and are subject to change without notice. All applications are subject to standard credit assessment criteria, lender approval, and verification of the information provided.

Regulation & Compliance

Arham Finance operates in accordance with Australian regulatory requirements. We are regulated by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) and comply with the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009.

We are committed to responsible lending practices and take a considered approach when assessing each application. This includes making reasonable inquiries about your requirements and objectives, verifying your financial situation, and determining whether a loan is suitable for you.

Responsible Lending

When assessing your application, we consider factors such as:

- Your current financial commitments and liabilities
- Your repayment capacity and overall financial position
- Your recent transaction history and spending patterns
- Whether the loan aligns with your needs and objectives

Our aim is to ensure that any credit provided is not unsuitable for your circumstances.

We encourage you to carefully consider your financial position before applying for any loan.

> If you are experiencing financial difficulty or believe you may have trouble meeting your repayment obligations, please contact us using the details provided on our website.
>
> Early communication allows us to explore available options with you.